About Us

Founded in 2003 by Agnes Masabatha Sibeko, Jabatha Paper & Stationery has become one of South Africa's fastest-growing office equipment suppliers. As a former teacher, Agnes recognised an opportunity in the education sector and started a small paper and stationery business from her home.

Due to the growing demand of the business, certain expertise was required to steer the business to suit the market trends and escalate it, to an enhanced level, hence came the recruitment of acquisition candidates, James Sibeko from the Paper industry, Seapara Mogoba from an accounting perspective, and Edith Collophen from the Stationery Industry to enable this vision and further the company growth.

In just six years, Jabatha obtained a 3,250 m² warehouse in the heart of Johannesburg. This remains our office equipment epicentre to this day, where we accommodate our Gauteng operations in one prime location that is easily accessible for trade.

We apply innovative strategies, quality and convenient service, and a more simplified way of processing your order through online shopping. Our national footprint boasts service levels that extend across the Southern hemisphere, with branches based in Gauteng, KwaZulu-Natal and the Eastern Cape, all for your business convenience.

Our story, from humble beginnings, proves our company ethos: Anything is possible with hard work and commitment to providing excellent service to our customers!
